

GOVERNMENT

We the people have a government by the people, for the people. So we really should have some idea what that government is. This is your chance to do some research. Some of these you'll know; some you'll have to do some digging. But no one should live under a government, especially one that is beholden to them, without having a clue how it works.

FLIP OVER FOR YOUR NEXT CHALLENGE

EARN THIS NUGGET

When you can successfully answer these questions to the satisfaction of your parents.

LEVEL G

PERIOD 4

TASK 3

1. How many branches of government?
2. Congress includes two parts, name them.
3. Describe the role of the two parts.
4. Who heads the executive branch?
5. Congress is part of which branch of government?
6. What does the Supreme Court do?
7. How many senators are elected for each state?
8. Name your state's senators.
9. How many representatives does each state have?
10. How is the president chosen?
11. What is the Electoral College and why is it thought necessary?
12. The president commander in chief of what?
13. Does this quiz center around federal or local government?

