

LET'S WRITE OUR NAME

Do you know your name? Of course you know your name, just as soon as I am Jasper T. Robertson.

But, it's not enough to know your name; can you write your name? You are going to spend your life writing your name in all sorts of places. When you paint a picture, you sign it. When you write a birthday card, you sign your name.

FLIP OVER FOR YOUR NEXT CHALLENGE

EARN THIS NUGGET

So this time, to earn your Nugget, I need you to learn to write your full name. You'll have your Nugget when you have written your name clearly and correctly twenty times without copying or tracing. Good luck, my friend.

LEVEL A

TASK 1

So this is how we are going to learn to write our name:

1. Get a parent or older family member to lightly write your name on a piece of paper in pencil.
2. Trace over the letters of your name.
3. Write your name underneath the tracing as many times as you can fit it.
4. Now on a fresh piece of paper, write your name if you can without using the last sheet. If you can't quite do it, repeat from step one.

You'll be writing your name in no time, TrailBlazer!
