

PREPARING A HOT BEVERAGE

This time of year, having a hot drink when you come in from the cold can be wonderful. Some people like coffee. Some people like tea. Some perhaps like hot cocoa.

TASK 1

Now, I know what you are thinking, Trailblazer, that this is going to be another exercise to teach you how to do something for yourself. But it isn't. This one is to help you do something for other people. Throughout your life, you'll be expected to make a hot refreshing beverage for others and we are going to learn the basics now.

1. First thing you'll need to do is take the orders. Coffee, tea, whatever it is people want.

Don't forget to ask them how they like it: Do they like milk or cream? Do they like sugar or something else in that drink? You may want a piece of paper.

2. Next, you are going to have to learn your way around your kitchen and how each of these drinks are made. Some people have a coffee maker. Some use granules or a fancy machine. Some can be true for tea or many other drinks.

3. Finally, serve others the drink of their choice. Make sure you serve it with a smile, and a cookie might be a nice touch too.
